

BOROUGH OF LODI

Application for Employment

The Opportunity to Compete Act, N.J.S.A. 34:6B-11 to 19, went into effect on March 1, 2015. Under this new law, an employer cannot make any inquiry—either verbally or in writing, including in an employment application—about an applicant’s criminal record during the Initial Employment Application Process, unless one of the limited exceptions below applies.

The Initial Employment Application Process refers to “the period beginning when an applicant for employment first makes an inquiry to an employer about a prospective employment position or job vacancy or when an employer first makes any inquiry to an applicant for employment about a prospective employment position or job vacancy, and ending when an employer has conducted a first interview, whether in person or by any other means, of an applicant for employment.” Employers can make this inquiry after the Initial Employment Application Process has concluded (i.e., post-interview).

The Act allows employers to request criminal history information before the first interview in the following limited circumstances:

- If an applicant voluntarily discloses his or her criminal history during the Initial Employment Application Process.
- Where the applicant is seeking a position in law enforcement, corrections, the judiciary, homeland security or emergency management.
- Where the applicant is seeking a position where a criminal history record background check is required by law, rule or regulation.
- Where the applicant may be legally precluded from holding the position by virtue of his or her arrest or conviction.
- Where any law, rule or regulation restricts an employer’s ability to engage in specified business activities based on the criminal records of its employees.
- Where the applicant is seeking a position designated by the employer as part of a program designed predominately to encourage the employment of persons who have a criminal record.

 If application is used before the Initial Employment Application Process, question #11 should not be answered.

Question #11 of the application seeks information on convictions that have not been expunged. Accordingly, unless one of the above exceptions applies, the application shall only be used after the Initial Employment Application Process.

Job applicants are considered for all positions without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, affectional or sexual orientation, age, religion, marital, or veterans status, or disability. The State will not tolerate any form of discrimination or sexual harassment.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended prohibits employers from discriminating against any qualified person on the basis of a disability. The State of New Jersey makes reasonable accommodations during all aspects of the employment process, such as testing and interviews. The State also makes reasonable accommodations in the work environment to enable a person with a disability to perform the essential job functions and to participate equally with co-workers without disabilities. However, the State can only make reasonable accommodations when it is aware of a disability. It is up to you to inform the prospective employer if you need a reasonable accommodation. The employer may ask you for documentation to support your request for a reasonable accommodation.
